

Dallas Area Summer Theatre Camps

Want to hone your acting skills over the summer or want to be a part of a play? Check out some of these fun acting camps!

Octaviar Academy

<https://sites.google.com/site/octaviarproductions/customization>

Octaviar Academy. (Ages 13-19) The goal of this group is to grow the student actor in an ensemble style show. All students will be cast in an ensemble heavy show for 2-3 weeks. Focus will be on telling an engaging story. We will work on creating a strong physical character, delivering meaningful dialogue, and working with fellow actors in a strong ensemble show. We will utilize improvisation games as well as daily acting lessons that relate to the style and/or physical needs of the show we are working on. Camp for this will seem more like a constant acting workshop. This is great for the high school actor looking to enhance their skills or the student actor looking to continue training in college. Sample shows include: Spring Awakening, Dog Sees God, And They Dance Real Slow in Jackson, Chicago, etc. shows depend on enrollment.

Young Actors Studio

<http://www.youngactors.org/>

Held in June and July, our Summer Acting Performance camps are one of the most highly sought after Acting Camps in the country for kids/teens! Summer Camp information is available each March and all camps are usually full by the end of April! Waiting lists are maintained for each camp.

Junior Players

<http://www.juniorplayers.org/index.html>

They offer programs all year long, including the summer. All Junior Players' workshop leaders exhibit professionalism, leadership and act as positive adult role models. Directors are professional artists with experience in theater, dance, fine arts, music, or arts education. Many of Junior Players' artists also work as instructors for DISD, Young Audiences, Artreach and Dallas Children's Theater. They challenge their students' creative imaginations, and guide them in expanding language and verbal skills.

Dallas Children's Theatre

<https://secure.dct.org/academyclasses/summerclasses/>

Acting! Musical Theater! Comedy! Movie Making!

DCT's ShowBiz Summer and Teen Conservatory has class offerings for ages 3 ½ to Teen.

One and Two-week sessions run from June to August.

Dallas Theater Center

<https://www.dallastheatercenter.org/summerstage.php>

The Teen Actor Training Program (ATP) provides advanced training for students desiring an intensive theater experience, under the guidance of professional actors and directors. During the three-week ATP program, students are immersed in a variety of classes, in addition to their core acting curriculum, which may include: Voice, Movement, Improv, Audition, Directing, Musical Theater, Design, Playwriting, or Shakespeare